

From: CutlassLA@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/19/01 4:08pm
Subject: Proposed MS settlement.

Microsoft has a history of lying and evading. Absent stringent oversight and concrete enforcement provisions, there is no reason to expect they will do otherwise in future. Furthermore, 'simply telling a defendant to go forth and sin no more does little or nothing to address the unfair advantage it has already gained.' Meaningful penalties are the least the government can do to redress some of the harm done to consumers and competitors.